WHY GIMI?

GIMI is the worldwide standard certification body for innovation and innovation management. Its international network includes over 16,000 innovation experts, business leaders, and thought leaders.

The Largest Global Innovation Network

GIMI is the world's largest professional organization for innovators with over 13,000 active members, 18,000 individual certificates issued, and 28 Certified Training Partners (CTPs) that represent over 100 countries. These members and CTPs include the prestigious business leaders, leading innovation experts, and esteemed innovation researchers and professors.

Preeminent Innovation Thought Leader

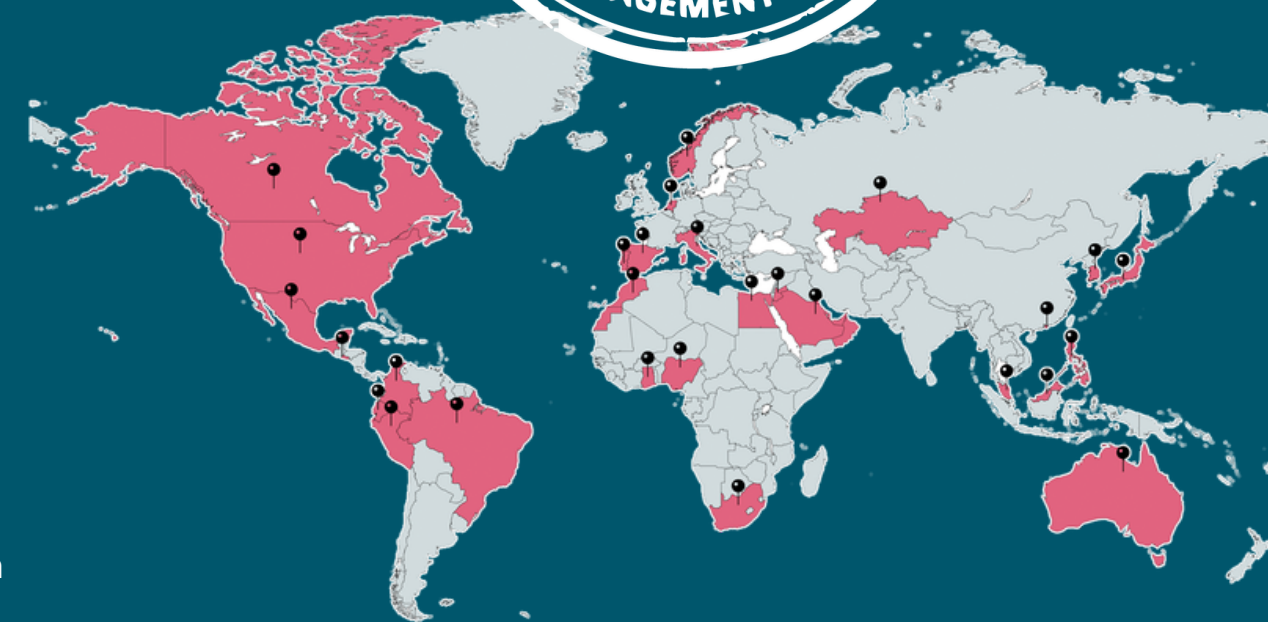

GIMI's team and board of directors, led by innovation guru Hitendra Patel, continues to author numerous books and studies on innovation, write impactful innovation articles, maintain the International Journal of Innovation Science and host the weekly GIMI Think Tank.

A Diversified Range of Programs

GIMI has programs to jumpstart innovation, build capabilities, and generate results for high schools, universities, SMEs, corporates, and governments. We have helped over 1,300 organizations including Fortune 500 companies like HSBC, Pfizer, P&G, IBM, and Philips.

ISO Compliant

As part of GIMI's mission of democratizing innovation around the world by certifying 1 million people, the organization has been audited and endorsed as ISO 56002+ compliant. GIMI's High Performance Innovation Framework was also endorsed as ISO compliant.
